Required Attire

Business Attire (could be skirt, pants or dress)

Color Coordinated Closed Toe Heels

This will be worn during your one-on-one interview. Remember, first impressions go a long way. The judges will have received your judges sheet to get to know you. Remember you are being observed on your ability to answer the questions asked by each judge. They will be focusing on your appearance, poise, self-confidence and ability to speak.

Black Cocktail Dress

Black Closed Toe Heels

This dress should be tasteful to each individual's age. You want this dress to be flattering and classy. You will use this dress for the opening number and first introduction on stage. This dress may be used for event prior to pageant. At this time you will introduce yourself, share your sponsor and what title you are seeking.

Bathing Suit

Color Coordinated Closed Toe Heels

The bathing suit and wrap will be worn by Miss Seal Beach Contestants during the swim suit competition. Judges will be focusing on energy, confidence and physical fitness. Two piece is ok (please no thongs), preferably one color.

Sports Outfit

Appropriate Athletic Shoe

This will replace the swimsuit competition for Jr. Miss Seal Beach only. Teen Candidates will together vote either bathing suit or sports attire for this segment of the competition. Props are permitted such as tennis racket, volleyball etc. Judges will be focusing on energy, confidence and physical fitness.

Formal Gown

Color Coordinated Heel

The lights are on you...make it count!! The judges will be focusing on your style and ability to represent Seal Beach. In this gown you will walk on stage as your name is called and end at the podium where you will pick a question to be asked by the host/hostess. Judges will be focusing on stage presence, composure/charm and over all self-presentation.

Choosing The Winning Dress

Here is something to think about when choosing your gown. Take the time to Google past Miss/Teen USA pageants to see what was worn. Research the latest trends, does it capture what's currently "IN" in terms of silhouette, cut, color, and fabric? You'll know it's the right dress when you feel like you want the world to see you in the dress. Good luck!
